CATALOGUE 137 Indonesia revisited

Delivery according to the trade conditions of the Antiquarian Bookseller's Association of the Netherlands, Amsterdam depôtno. 212/1982, in which among other things is determined that the property right of the supplied goods remains with us up to full payment.

Prices are quoted in euro (€) to which postage and insurance will be added.

For clients within the European Community VAT (currently 6% on books) will be added to the prices. A VAT registered customer in another EC country will be zero-rated if the customer's VAT number is known to us.

We always enjoy meeting our customers personally in Vianen (only 15 km from Utrecht or 45 km from Amsterdam) from Monday through Friday, on Saturday visitors are welcome by appointment. We recommend though, that you call in advance, to be certain we will be there for your arrival.

Coloured lithographed poster. Ca. 109 x 82 cm. € 950,00
Albert Hahn (1877-1918) was a draughtsman, cartoonist, illustrator and designer of posters. This beautiful poster, depicting a Javanese bride, announced the Colonial Exhibition in Semarang in 1914, the greatest exposition ever held in the Netherlands East Indies, a celebration of colonial supremacy. The city of Semarang was galvanized into activity for this great event, new hotels and pensions opened, etc. - Except some small imperfections an attractive poster.

€ 2.750,00

Second state. - Magnificent engraving illustrating the victory of the Dutch East India Company over the kingdom of Macassar in the years 1666-69. At the top border are depicted on the left side the capture of the fortified places Glisson, Pannekoke, Battabatta, Barrambon, etc. and on the right side the victory over the capital Samboupo, within a wreath the portraits of Cornelis Speelman and Radjah Palacca and in the middle the monogram of the VOC surrounded by Mars and Mercury, and a scroll with the title. The fascinating plate itself depicts various events of the war including houses, ships, soldiers, local people and scenery. - The two poems in the letterpress are by the famous Dutch poet Joost van den Vondel. - Edges of the plate reaffirmed with some tiny repairs to the corners and outer edges of the fold, otherwise a very fine and clean copy.

The anonymous publication of Images of Light and Shadow from Java's interior, first published in 1854, created a lot of bad feeling which impeded but could not prevent its appearance in the Netherlands. In the Netherlands Indies, the book was what we would now call a best seller. Junghuhn's book was prohibited in Austria and in several German states and principalities because of its alleged 'denigrations and vilifications

Aquatint plate after H.P. Oosterhuis by J.A. Lutz. Ca. 27,5 x 41 cm. € 1.250,00
Proof-plate. - After the Dutch action against Palembang in 1821, two aquatints were made by H.P. Oosterhuis (the battle on the river and the embarking of Sultan Machmoed Badaroedin), accompanied by a leaf of letterpress. 'No date of publication is indicated, and there is no evidence that the work was published since only proof plates are known. They must have been executed in about 1822 or 1823, and rank among the rarest of nineteenth century prints of Indonesia, an additional degree of rarity arising from the fact that they are aquatints, a medium of illustration seldom used by early nineteenth century Dutch engravers' (Bastin-Brommer N 177). - The beautiful aquatint plate depicts the embarking of Sultan Machmoed Badaroedin on H.M.S. Johanna on the river Sousang, Sumatra, and the Dutch fleet with a detailed picture of the buildings along the coast. - Extremely rare.

Including: Geestige en vermaekelijke reysbeschrijving .. naer Oostindien uytgevaren voor Raed van Justitie, in den jare 1668. Aernout van Overbeke (1632-1674) was a wag. His Verses, which later on came to include his travelogue, were reprinted numerous times. The tenth edition appeared in 1719. His travel account is not based on a diary, as most of them are, but written in the epistolary style instead. Van Overbeke's 'letters' are helter-skelter, they allude to memories, contain allusions and double-entendres, they are larded with Latin quotations, and never stops showing how witty he is (Nieuwenhuys, Mirror of the Indies, p.19). - Landwehr, VOC, 1540.

267 PALMER VAN DEN BROEK, W. Javaansche vertellingen, bevattende de lotgevallen van een kantjil, een reebok en andere dieren. 's Gravenhage, Martinus Nijhoff, 1878. Original printed wrappers. VIII, 213 pp. € 75,00

269 PAULIDES, Hendrik. De Javaansche sawah. (1928). Original lithograph depicting a Javanese sawah. Ca. 32,5 x 25 cm. € 275,00
Fine lithograph depicting Javanese people and karbouws ploughing the sawah, made by the Dutch artist Hendrik Paulides (1892-1967). His style can be described as realistic, somewhat stylised, and always decorative and elegant (Haks & Maris p.206). This lithograph was published together with the memorial issue of 'De Indische Mercur'. - Spruit, Indonesian Impressions, p.126. - On cover.

270 PERELAER, (Michel Théophile Hubert). De Bonische expeditien. Krijgsgebeurtenissen op Celebes in 1859 en 1860. Volgens officiële bronnen bewerkt. Leiden, Gualth. Kolf, 1872. 2 volumes in 1. Later cloth. With lithographed portrait frontispiece, 5 plates (4 folding, 3 in colours) and 10 maps and plans (9 folding). XVI,359; VIII,376 pp. € 435,00
Account of the military expedition by general Van Swieten against the queen of Bone (South Sulawesi) Basse Kadjoeara in 1859 and 1860. 'Hij was een moedig militair die zich op expedities en als civiel gezaghebber onderscheidde. Hij kreeg dan ook de Militaire Willemsorde en nog een paar eretekenen. Ondanks zijn verbondenheid met het leger is zijn kijk op het militaire leven genuanceerder en onafhankelijker dan die van Van Rees en er waren tijden dat hij op het punt stond 'uit te treden', bekend deze militair die eigenlijk pastoor had willen worden' (R. Nieuwenhuys, Oost-Indische spiegel, p.197). - Scarce. - Cat. KITLV p.45; Tiele 855 (note).

271 PERELAER, (Michel Théophile Hubert). Het kamerlid Van Berkenstein in Nederlandsch-Indië. Leiden, A.W. Sijthoff, (1888). 4 volumes in 2. Folio. Original decorated red cloth gilt (extremities of spines skilfully restored). With 107 chromo-lithographed plates after J.C. Rappard. 205; 202; 195; 198 pp. € 2.750,00

The same plates were used in the book by Perelaer and Rees: Nederlandsch-Indië. Leiden, 1881-83. - Perelaer (1831-1901) wrote a fictitious account of a member of parliament who refuses to make up his mind about Indonesian affairs before he makes a journey through the Indonesian archipelago. With beautiful coloured plates of Batavia (29), Buitenzorg and surroundings (28), Java (25) and the rest of Indonesia (25) representing topographical views and European social life by Josias Cornelis Rappard (1824-1898). - Some minor foxing, otherwise a very good copy. *Bastin-Brommer N 691; Cat. Original edition. - Jonkheer H. Quarles van Ufford accompanied the moderate liberal Governor-General A.J. Duymaer van Twist (with whom Douwes Dekker, Multatuli, came into conflict) during his voyage through the Moluccas in 1855. Aim of the tour was to discuss the socio-economic conditions with the regional authorities and to implement measures for improvement. They visited Ternate, Tidore, Makian, Bacan, Amboina, Saparua and Banda. Information is given on political and judicial administration, population, the cultivation of clover and nutmeg, trade and transport, etc.. A description of several villages which were visited is included. - (Small libr. stamp on title-page). - Tiele 888; Cat. NHSM I, p.247; *Cat. 287 RAFFLES, Thomas Stamford. The history of Java. London, Black, Parbury, and Allen, and John Murray, 1817.

2 volumes. 4to. Modern blind-tooled half calf. With 2 maps (one large folding of Java), 10 hand-coloured plates and 53 etched or aquatint plates, and some engraved vignettes. XLVIII,479; VIII,288,(3),CCLX pp. € 6.250,00

First edition. - 'In terms of the pictorial depiction of Javanese costume and topography the importance of the History of Java can hardly be exaggerated .. The marriage of a scientifically original text with beautiful illustrations by an accomplished aquatint engraver resulted in a book about Indonesia of outstanding quality; indeed, a masterpiece' (Bastin-Brommer p.6-7). The ten coloured aquatints, though unsigned are by William Daniell, illustrate Javanese life and costume, and the Papuan boy who accompanied Raffles to England in 1816. The plate of the Borobudur is one of the first depictions of the monument. - An influential work. - Afine copy. Bastin-Brommer N 90; Abbey, Travel, 554; Tooley, Coloured Plates, 391.

Verhandelingen Bataviaasch Genootschap. - 'The study of Sundanese may be said to begin with the publication in 1862 of the extensive dictionary compiled by Jonathan Rigg, an English landowner who lived in Djasinga, near the border between the regencies of Bogor and Banten. At that time scarcely existed any accurate knowledge about the language. Sundanese or as it was sometimes called Mountain-Javanese, was supposed to be a kind of coarse Javanese dialect. Raffles' opinion on the relation between Javanese and Sundanese was expressed in the following way: 'the Sunda, with reference to the Javan, may be viewed in much the same light as the Welch is to the English' .. Rigg's dictionary initiated a new period of more intensive study of Sundanese' (Uhlenbeck, Languages of Java and Madura, p. 10-11). - Rare.

Map representing the houses, public buildings, fortress, the military encampment, Waterloo-Place, the Free Mason's lodge, inns, etc. situated in the different quarters of Ryswyk, Noordwyk, Weltevreden, King's Place, Molenvliet, belonging to Batavia, corrected on the spot and augmented by J. de Rosa, controller of the register of lands in his Majesty the King of Netherland's Service. The new districts of Batavia with the main square Koningsplein, surrounded by spacious houses on large lots, forming a very agreeable residential area. The other spacious square was Waterlooplein in the old city, used as a parade-ground. Until late in the nineteenth century Batavia kept this rather peculiar shape with its two centres at a distance of an hour by coach. In the area in between were some kampongs, country houses, rice fields and a large Chinese cemetery (Brommer, Batavia, p.11). - A fine and rare plan.

First French edition, published as volume VI and VII of Renville, Recueil des voyages.
- Wouter/Gautier Schouten (1638-1704) Dutch seaman and traveller first sailed in the service of the Dutch East India Company from Amsterdam as ship's surgeon in April 1658 and spent the following seven years in the East, participating in many notable voyages. In 1660 he was present at the Dutch siege of Makassar (in Sulawesi), and in November 1661 visited Colombo, in Ceylon. During 1661-62 he participated in the campaigns of Rijcklof van Goens along the Malabar coast, and in 1664 he was in Bengal and Arakan. In Batavia in 1667 he collected information about the loss of Zeelandia (on Formosa/Taiwan). He also visited Sumatra, the Moloccas, Amboina and the Cape of Good Hope, finally returning to Holland in October 1665. Schouten was an observant traveller who explored inland into the environs of nearly every port-of-call, sometimes by himself or with a small group of comrades. His narrative, full of anecdotes as well as information gleaned about countries he had not visited became particularly popular with readers in the eighteenth century, when it was published in no fewer than seven editions (Howgego, Encyclopedia of exploration, p.947). Because of its extraordinary literary quality this travel-account stayed very popular till to-day. - A fine copy.

6 volumes in 7. Original half cloth.
Christiaan Snouck Hurgronje (1857-1936) was a famous Dutch scholar of Oriental cultures and languages and Advisor on Native Affairs to the colonial government of the Netherlands East Indies. 'He knew more about Islam than the best-informed Muslim and more about colonial government than the Colonial Office itself, and many an opponent was antagonised or even silenced by his vitrolic criticism'.
With Snouck Hurgronje (1857-1936) a new chapter begins in Dutch Islam scholarship in general and the study of Indonesian Islam in particular. .. In spite of all the criticism, no one intending to seriously study Islam in Indonesia will be able to avoid reading Snouck Hurgronje's work and consulting them again and again' (Boland-Farjon, Islam in Indonesia, p.16-17). The collected works is an authorised edition with corrections by the author. It includes all his publications until 1927 with the exception of his largest monographs.

‘The study of Batak was started by H.N. van der Tuuk. It is astonishing to observe how this genius arrived at a nearly complete understanding of the contents of Batak texts with the scanty data concerning the Batak language occurring in the literature in his student days. After his work all these older data lost their importance. .. In the dictionary the Batak words - given in Batak script - are arranged according to a sequence by Van der Tuuk and based on the phonic order of the Sanskrit alphabet. One should never think that one might omit learning the script and rest content with the later romanized dictionaries. For Dairi-Batak, Van der Tuuk still remains the only printed source’ (Voorhoeve, Languages of Sumatra, p.9). - (Without the plates).

The first Toba-Batak grammar ever published. - ‘The main work in the field of Batak grammar was likewise done by Van der Tuuk. .. The peculiarities of Angkola, Mandailing and Dairi are treated in notes printed in small type .. Van der Tuuk’s Toba Grammar is really the first scientific grammar of an Indonesian language. For the first time the public were presented with the description of a language which did not start from a preconceived alien grammatical system, but where the system was deduced from the language itself’ (Voorhoeve, Languages of Sumatra, p.12).

Wallace's (1823-1913) second, longest, and most significant expedition was to the relatively underexplored Malay Archipelago between 1854 and 1862. His journey took him first to Singapore and then Borneo, where he hunted and observed the orangutan (1855-1856). Heading east to the Moluccas group, he explored Amboyna and Ternate during 1857 and 1858. In 1858 Wallace traveled to Lombok and Bali in the Timor group, recognizing this group of islands as the boundary between the two primary continental influences dividing the natural history of the archipelago, the Indian sub-continent in the northwest, and Australia in the southeast. The remaining three years of Wallace's travels (1859-1862) took him east to the Papuan group, where he explored Macassar, the Aru Islands (where he studied the bird of paradise) then New Guinea. This was interspersed with return visits west to Ternate and Amboyna, and the Celebes group for the first time. He visited Sumatra before returning to England via Singapore (Speake, Encyclopedia, p.1264). This is a magnificent combination of interesting sketches of travel and vivid pictures of natural history. - Bastin-Brommer N 564; Tiele 1195; Cat. KITLV p.5.
