CATALOGUE 259:
400 YEARS OF NYC HISTORY
NEW YORK 400th ANNIVERSARY COMMEMORATING THE FOUNDING OF NEW YORK AND THE DUTCH IN AMERICA, INCLUDING DUTCH BRAZIL

In 1624, the Dutch West India Company brought 30 predominantly French Huguenot families on the ship New Netherland to establish one of the earliest Dutch settlements in America on Nutten (now Governors) Island. The following year, in 1625, Fort Amsterdam was constructed a short distance across the water on Mannahatta (now Manhattan Island) where the current Customs House on Bowling Green is now situated. In 1626, Peter Minuit negotiated with the Indigenous Lenape People for the right to use Manhattan Island, which led to a permanent settlement there.

By the time the colony of New Amsterdam was taken over by the British in 1664, it had grown to 9,000 people comprised of Dutch, English, Welsh, Irish, Scot, German, French Huguenots, Sephardic Jews, Africans, and many other nationalities in between.

'The iconography of Manhattan Island represents the result of a two-fold purpose: to collect, to condense, and to arrange systematically and in just proportion, within the confines of a single work, the facts and incidents which are of the greatest consequence and interests in the history of New York, with special reference to its topographical features and the physical development of the island; and to illustrate this material by the best reproductions obtainable of important and interesting contemporary maps, plans, views, and documents; in other words, to produce a book dealing with the physical rather than with the personal side of the city's history, which shall be at the same time useful and interesting to the student of history, the antiquarian, the collector, and the general public' (Preface). - Most elaborate and comprehensive history of New York City (Howes S 1026).
